Alexandria Choral Society announces 2022-2023 season

Alexandria, VA – Alexandria Choral Society (ACS), under Artistic Director Brian Isaac, is excited to open its 2022-2023 season with OUT OF THE DEEP, featuring John Rutter’s exquisite REQUIEM on October 15th. This glorious work, scored for mixed choir and organ, ushers in the message of hope and comfort in Rutter’s signature lush melodies and orchestrations.

ACS’s second annual SNOW GLOBE SERIES, brings holiday-themed repertoire into communities with free pop-up concerts throughout Alexandria in November and December. Check out the website for performance dates and locations. The season will wrap up 2022 with a traditional holiday performance featuring well-known favorites and new winter works in SNOW ON SNOW on December 17th.

On March 11, 2023, ACS presents AMERICAN FRAGMENTS with repertoire by American composers like William Averitt (Afro-American Fragments), Jeffery Ames (Live Long and Prosper), William Grant Still (Plain Chant for America), Moira Smiley (Bring Me Little Water Silvy), and more. The concert will be followed by our annual Gala & Silent Auction.

The season closes with ON THE OTHER SIDE OF CHANGE, featuring female composers, including a commissioned work by Dr. Melissa Dunphy with text by Alexandria’s poet laureate Zeina Azzam. This concert will be accompanied by the recipient of our annual Sing-Off Grant, ACS’s program supporting youth ensembles in the DMV.

TICKETS ARE NOW AVAILABLE! As a non-profit performing arts organization, ACS strongly believes that financial capacity should never be a barrier to experiencing quality choral programming. Under our PAY-WHAT-YOU-CAN pricing model, our suggested price for each seat is $30, but we invite you to pay the amount that is affordable for you - whether that be more or less. Season tickets are $100 and reserve admission to all four of ACS’s regular season performances at $20 off our suggested ticket price.
