Alexandria, VA – The Alexandria Choral Society closes the year with a holiday-themed concert, Snow on Snow, on Saturday, December 17th at 7pm, at the George Washington Masonic Memorial in Alexandria.

Artistic Director Brian Fontaine-Isaac has curated a unique set of repertoire featuring a stunning mix of seasonal favorites, popular carols and contemporary winter works. Among them is Rosephanye Powell's exuberant 'Go Tell it on the Mountain', Matthew Culloton's contemplative 'Still, Still, Still', and Jannaya Robison's uplifting 'Ring Out!'. ACS's chamber ensemble Pro Coro Alexandria will be performing Ben Parry's nimble 'Jingle Bells', and Elaine Hagenberg's 'Alleluia'.

This concert introduces ACS's composer in residence, Melissa Dunphy's 'Halcyon Days', setting a Jacqueline Goldfinger poem encouraging all to "Go forth in peace, bring joy to the dawn..." sending off an uplifting message heading into the New Year.

Gather all friends and families! Come and join us to celebrate this joyful winter season!

Concert and season tickets are available now at www.AlexandriaChoralSociety.org

As a non-profit performing arts organization, ACS strongly believes that financial capacity should never be a barrier to experiencing quality choral programming, and has adopted a "Pay What You Can" model. The suggested ticket price is $30. Season tickets are also available. Masks are required at this performance.

About Alexandria Choral Society:

For half a century, Alexandria Choral Society has striven to enrich the community with a broad spectrum of choral works, from the Renaissance to modern American composers, from small chamber pieces to major works for chorus and orchestra, and from a great variety of musical cultures. Since its founding in 1970, ACS has delighted audiences year in and year out. Under the current leadership of Brian J. Fontaine-Isaac, who was selected as Artistic Director in 2017, ACS has premiered new works by Christopher Hoh, Jonathan Kolm, Lori Laitman and Tawnie Olson. With thoughtful programming, ACS is expanding the choral repertoire in the city of Alexandria and greater Washington region.
