Alexandria Choral Society launches 2022-2023 'Sing-Off Grant Program'

Youth choral ensembles are encouraged to upload performance submissions for a chance to perform with ACS and win a $1,000 grant.

Alexandria, VA - Alexandria Choral Society (ACS) will select a youth ensemble to win a $1,000 grant and perform alongside ACS during its May 2023 concert.

The selected ensemble will have an opportunity to present two to three choral works on their own and a larger work with ACS, under the direction of Artistic Director Brian J. Isaac. A certificate and a $1,000 check will be presented to the chosen ensemble at ACS's May 2023 concert.

Ensembles that are interested in this grant program should apply for entry online at www.alexandriachoralsociety.org/singoff.

Each application must include a performance video/audio submission. The recorded performance video/audio must present a choral work at least two minutes in length (preferably a cappella) in any language.

Applications are due to ACS by Sunday, May 1, 2022.

For more information and complete program rules, visit www.alexandriachoralsociety.org/singoff, or call 703-951-7849.

Alexandria Choral Society aspires to enhance the cultural life of the city of Alexandria and surrounding communities by presenting diverse and engaging vocal music programs at the highest artistic level.

For more than 50 years, ACS performances have enriched the community with a broad spectrum of choral works, from the Renaissance to modern American composers, from small chamber pieces to major works for chorus and orchestra, and from a great variety of musical cultures.

Our season is supported in part by the City of Alexandria, the Virginia Commission for the Arts, and the National Endowment for the Arts.
